Downtown

The historic downtown core of Rifle boasts a long history as the mercantile and cultural hub of the Colorado River Valley. Centered on 3rd Street, downtown Rifle has a great small-town vibe with historic buildings, gift shops, restaurants, retail stores, entertainment, and so much more!

Ute Theater 132 E 4th Street

The Ute Theater and Events Center is a historic art-deco venue built in 1947. After an extensive renovation project the Ute was re-opened to the public in May 2014. A wide variety of concerts, plays, films, and events take place at the Ute. www.utetheater.com

Centennial Park 300 W 5th Street

Centennial Park consists of a beautiful outdoor amphitheater, childrens' splash park, picnic shelters, trails and plenty of green space. One of the highlights of Centennial Park is the unique artwork displayed throughout the park, giving visitors a glimpse into Rifle's history and western heritage.

Fairgrounds 1001 Railroad Avenue

The Garfield County Fairgrounds houses an indoor arena, outdoor arenas, stalls, campsites, and meeting/banquet rooms. The facility is home to the Garfield County Fair, 4-H and other youth functions, barrel racing, roping, penning/sorting, bull riding, job fairs, expos, concerts, carnivals, and private parties and much more.
